SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment to permit spouses to hold community property with right of survivorship.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Article XVI, Section 15, of the Texas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15. All property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent, shall be the separate property of that spouse; and laws shall be passed more clearly defining the rights of the spouses, in relation to separate and community property; provided that persons about to marry and spouses, without the intention to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property, then existing or to be acquired, or exchange between themselves the community interest of one spouse or future spouse in any property for the community interest of the other spouse or future spouse in other community property then existing or to be acquired, whereupon the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property and estate of such spouse or future spouse; ~~[and the]~~ spouses also may from time to time, by written instrument, agree between
